

Welcome to the first Move On Up Newsletter!

The newsletter aims to share information about transitions.

It aims to help the support networks of young learning-disabled and autistic people to understand the options available.

This is the October newsletter. There will be one newsletter per half term.

This newsletter mentions links to websites with information about social care referrals and what options might be available.

The newsletter has a 'glossary of terms'. It explains what different words in the transition process mean.

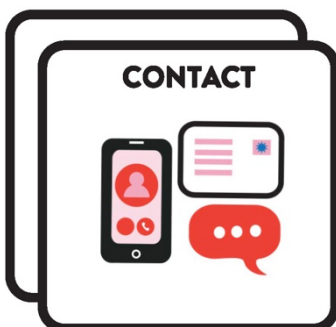

The newsletter has information about upcoming events and opportunities that might be of interest.

The newsletter has information about organisations that offer arts activities for learning-disabled and autistic people.

The newsletter has a creative activity to practice a Move On Up transition tool. In this newsletter, the tool is 'Using Your Voice'.

The newsletter has the contact details of the Move On Up team at Purple Patch Arts.
